ANNUAL UM FRIENDS OF LIBRARY DINNER
WILL BE APRIL 27 AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

Lenora Koelbel, author of "Missoula: The Way It Was," will be keynote speaker and will show slides made from early Missoula photographs at the annual University of Montana Friends of the Library Dinner, which will be held Tuesday, April 27, on the Missoula campus.

Koelbel, a historian and writer from Arlee, will present the illustrated lecture in the University Center Gold Oak Room. The dinner will be served promptly at 7 p.m. April 27, so guests are urged to arrive early.

Dr. Harry W. Fritz, associate professor of history at UM, will be master of ceremonies at the program, and entertainment also is scheduled during the annual dinner.

The Annual Friends of the Library Dinner is open to all interested persons. Reservations, accepted through Friday, April 23, may be made by phoning the UM Library Office, 243-6800, from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays. Cost of the dinner--$4.50 per person--may be paid at the door.
